

Nerve Slavery

It is present-day conditions—bearing burdens of work upon the nervous system that tell the story—premature breaking up of health.

It tells why so many men and women, who so far as age is concerned, should be in the prime of health, find themselves letting go of the strength, the power, the vitality they once possessed. It is because that great motor power of the body, nerve force, is impaired. Neither will the heart, the brain, the liver, the kidneys, the stomach act right without their proper nerve force supply. Let any organ be lacking in this essential and troubles begin—some of them are:

Throbbing, palpitating heart.
Sleepless nights.
Sudden startings.
Morning lassitude.
Brain fog.
Inability to work or think.
Exhaustion on exertion.
Flagging appetite.
Digestion slow.
Food heavy.
Easily excited, nervous, irritable.
Strength fails.
Loss of flesh and muscular power.
Settled melancholia.

HERE'S A GOOD JOB

Two Cold-Blooded Murderers

Go to the Gallows in Mississippi.

SENT TO THEIR DOOM

With Curses On Their Lips Ashley Cocke and Tom Lauderdale Pay Extreme Penalty.

Cocke Dies Denouncing Everybody and Predicts Death of His Prosecutors.

Greenville, Miss., July 23.—With curses on his lips, with eyes blood-shot, and with the expressed wish that the people of Greenville perish in the fires of hell, Ashley Cocke died here yesterday. With him, but silent, Tom Lauderdale also met his end. Both were convicted of the murder of Engineer G. M. Wray, were hanged from the same gallows, and the swing of a double trap sent both men to their doom. Cocke died boasting that he would be in hell in a few minutes and damning everything and everybody. He said that those who had planned his murder would meet their end and that $11,000 had been deposited in bank, $1,000 of which would be paid for the death of each of the eleven men who prosecuted him. The execution was witnessed by 6,000 people.

Before the time for the execution both men appeared defiant. Cocke especially being very abusive to everyone, while both cursed continually. After the death warrant had been read to the men in their cells, Cocke yelled through the window to the great crowd which gathered outside to witness the execution: "Damn you, don't be impatient, we are coming."

When the sheriff and the doomed men mounted the scaffold Cocke again began to berate those about him, and turning to the crowd, said: "It's all a plot to kill me; damn you all, damn everybody. I'm going to die like a man."

"I am killed for nothing, but I am the bravest man in the state of Mississippi. There is $11,000 waiting for anyone who will kill the eleven who made this plot. I will be revenged, for everyone of this eleven will be killed and no questions will be asked. They have murdered me, but revenge, revenge, revenge!"

Before he could say more the black caps were adjusted.

"Are you both ready?" asked the sheriff. "Yes," yelled Cocke through the folds of black. "Damn you people of Greenville, go to hell, all of you!"

The trap was sprung and the men dropped into space.

The crime for which Cocke and Lauderdale yesterday paid the death penalty on the gallows was committed on the Yazoo & Mississippi Valley railroad on the morning of Dec. 30, 1901, near Elizabeth.

Ashley Cocke, Tom Lauderdale, Will Blackburn and G. M. Phipps boarded the northbound passenger train at 3 o'clock in the morning for the purpose of returning to their home at Shelby, G. M. Wray, an engineer, was a passenger in the car entered by Cocke and his party. Cocke and his three companions were all more or less under the influence of liquor. Phipps fell against Wray, who was asleep on a seat.

Wray asked Phipps what he meant, and the reply came from Cocke that it meant that he (Wray) must leave the coach. Wray, realizing that the men were drinking, told them that it was all right and that he would leave the car. As Wray started to walk out, Blackburn said to Cocke, "What shall we do with that fellow?" He says he has done nothing, but is willing to apologize.

"I vote to kill him," replied Cocke. Cocke, Lauderdale and Blackburn then began shooting at Wray as the latter was trying to leave the coach. Wray was riddled with bullets and fell dead in the aisle of the car.

Cocke and Lauderdale were tried together, convicted and sentenced to be hanged March 21, 1902. An appeal was taken which staid the execution. The supreme court reviewed the case of Cocke and Lauderdale, affirming the decision of the lower court, and fixing Tuesday, July 22, as the day for the execution.

An effort by influential relatives and friends of the condemned men to have the death sentence commuted to life imprisonment proved ineffectual. Governor Longino refusing to interfere. Blackburn was sent to prison for life, his previous character having been proved exceptionally good.

Execution Private. Vicksburg, Miss., July 23.—Steve West, colored, was hanged in the jail yard here yesterday for the murder of Minnie Fisher, a 19-year-old negro girl, a year ago. The execution was private.

Windward Delayed. Halifax, N. S., July 23.—At Sydney yesterday afternoon it was discovered that the Peary Arctic steamer Windward was leaking. It seems that she was strained in some way while bunkering and yesterday afternoon she began making water. While the damage is serious enough to delay her departure a day or two, it is believed it is great enough to compel a temporary abandonment of the trip.

MONEY NO OBJECT

Kentucky's Determination to Get Taylor Not Abated, It Is Said.

Indianapolis, July 23.—Newton Myers, postmaster at Jeffersonville, who was here last night on business, made the rather startling statement that anyone who can guarantee to return Governor Taylor to Kentucky can make $100,000. "I think," said he, "that a man can name his own price if he can show the Kentuckians that he can deliver Taylor to them." This is especially surprising in view of representations made to Governor Durbin by the Goebel men who tried to get requisitions honored for Taylor. Myers, unintentionally—or rather without premeditation—played a prominent part in getting Taylor safely away from Kentucky when he made his flight. Taylor crossed the Ohio on a ferryboat to Jeffersonville, carrying a letter of introduction to Myers from Postmaster Baker of Louisville, with a request from the latter that he help Taylor to safety. Myers boarded a train and came to Indianapolis with Taylor the night before Secretary of State Finley of Kentucky was arrested and released here because of the late Governor Mount refusing to recognize the requisition. According to Myers there is still a bitter feeling in Kentucky against Taylor that would make it dangerous for him to return to the state. Both Taylor and Finley have vanished from the public eye and are but infrequently mentioned. Taylor is now engaged in a manufacturing business here and apparently has given up hope of returning to his native state.

The state voting machine commission is now examining what is known as the Cummings machine, patented and made by Indianapolis men. It has already approved the United States machine, manufactured at Rochester, N. Y., and the Columbia, that is owned by Indianapolis men. A law enacted by the last legislature provides that no machine may be used until it is approved by the voting machine commission. It is rather surprising that the voting machine does not seem to have met with much favor in Indiana, as it has not been adopted in many places. There have been a number of experiments, but nearly every city and county is waiting until they are absolutely sure of the practicability of the new method before they spend thousands of dollars buying machines. Frank Kelper, representing the United States machine, who was here for the meeting of the board, says that probably one-fifth of the voters of New York city are using machines, although they have not been introduced in New York city. He says that the machines soon pay for themselves, because the cost of conducting elections with them is so much less than by the old-time Australian ballot.

James Cox of Columbus, one of the Democratic leaders in the house last session, called on Governor Durbin late yesterday afternoon on business. He represented Bartholomew county, but is not an avowed candidate for nomination for another term. He says the Democrats down his way are well satisfied with the state platform, a majority regarding it as a big step in the right direction. During his term in the legislature Cox worked hard to get through a bill providing for the building of a hospital for epileptics at Columbus, but it met with defeat. But he says there is need for such an institution, that the state is sure to recognize sooner or later, and that when it does Columbus will ask for it. He does not believe that another bill providing for an institution for epileptics will be introduced by Columbus men, as the two fights they have made have ended in defeat.

It develops that there is more behind the Washington Post story that Indiana Republicans will propose Senator Fairbanks for president in 1904, than was generally believed when it came out. The senior senator's friends in this state have been "feeling the public pulse" since there have been so many suggestions of his name from other states in connection with the presidency, and they have decided that if all conditions are favorable they will ask for the nomination for him. It is understood that the senator, who is now in the East, has not been taken in on their plans, but the plans have progressed far enough now to know that there is something more than mere gossip behind it.

Major Glenn's Case. Washington, July 23.—The jury in the court martial which tried Major Edwin F. Glenn, Fifth infantry, on charges of administering the water cure to the natives of the Philippines or permitting it to be done, found him guilty and sentenced him to a month's suspension of duty and fined him $50.

A Determined Father. Kokomo, Ind., July 23.—Emerson Stevens of Greentown is in jail on a warrant sworn out by his father, accusing him of horse stealing. Although the horse belonged to another person, the parent refuses to withdraw the charge.

Fearful Mortality. Washington, July 23.—The war department has been informed from Manila that between May 9 and June 11 seventy-six enlisted men of the army died. Of these thirty-two deaths were caused by Asiatic cholera.

Isle of Roat Victims. Hamburg, July 23.—The Primus has been partially raised and brought nearer shore. The total number of missing is now placed at 104. Sixty-one bodies have been recovered.

FLOODS SUBSIDE

DANGER POINT PASSED

Maximum of Flood Now Reported Below Quincy Where the Dykes Seem to Be Firm.

The Village Population in Missouri Doubled By the Influx of Flood Refugees.

Keokuk, Ia., July 23.—The center of the top of the Mississippi river flood is now below Quincy. The river reached the maximum at Quincy yesterday afternoon and has been stationary there for several hours. The Lima lake levee extending north from Meyer, Ill., twenty miles north of Quincy, developed danger and a large force of men were employed to patrol it and earth tools were scattered along its length. That and the Hunt levee have stood the strain of the flood hitherto. These levees protect cornfields valued at several million dollars. The Mississippi river fell nine inches during the last twenty-four hours.

The population of the village of St. Francisville, Mo., has been nearly doubled by refugees from the flood district who lost absolutely everything. Last night a trestle 150 feet long, one mile north of Alexandria on the St. Louis, Keokuk & Northwestern railroad, was washed out, blocking traffic on that road and the Keokuk & Western, which uses the track there. The northbound Twin City Express from St. Louis to St. Paul passed the place half an hour previously.

THE PRIARS' QUESTION

High Church Authority Gives Out a Statement.

St. Paul, July 23.—Archbishop John Ireland, in an interview given out here, reviewed at some length the progress of the negotiations conducted between Judge Taft and the vatican, and took to task certain Catholic organizations that had assumed to question the fairness of the administration toward their co-religionists. The archbishop said:

"Yes, the news from Rome is quite satisfactory and, I am sure, quite correct. Private advices coming to me from the most reliable source confirm in all respects the news dispatches. The vatican pontiff and other Roman authorities are delighted with Governor Taft personally and with the negotiations in course of progress between him and the vatican. Reports sent out by the correspondents of certain London papers to the effect that the pontiff was displeased with the manner of acting of the commission of cardinals appointed to treat with Governor Taft were absolutely unfounded. As stated in yesterday's Roman dispatches, the pontiff assured Governor Taft that he was most satisfied and happy at the results so far obtained, and that he was confident the negotiations begun in Rome would be the starting point of a complete and satisfactory solution of the question under discussion. This statement resumes in the most excellent manner the situation as the vatican views it, and as it really is."

For His Family's Sake.

New York, July 23.—The charge of grand larceny that was formally made at police headquarters Monday by May Yohe against former Captain Putnam Bradley Strong, who has mysteriously disappeared, has been withdrawn. May Yohe's lawyer notified the police last evening that his client wished to formally withdraw all charges against the missing captain and that the reward of $1,000 offered for information as to his whereabouts be drawn. The lawyer would only say that the charges were withdrawn for the sake of Strong's family.

The Marietta Sails.

Willemstad, Island of Curacao, July 23.—The United States gunboat Marietta has sailed from LaGuayra, having been sent by Herbert W. Bowen, U. S. minister to Venezuela, to investigate the situation in the Orinoco district, which is reported to be extremely critical for American interests, as no communication has been had with Ciudad Bolivar since June 8. En route the Marietta will take on board Robert Henderson, the American consular agent at Ciudad Bolivar, who has taken refuge in Trinidad.

Offer a Compromise.

Philadelphia, July 23.—The employers of the gold beaters who went on strike all over the country Monday for higher wages have offered to compromise, and the men have refused to accept anything under what they ask. The gold beaters are receiving $11 a week and 4 cents a book. They demand $21 a week and 8 cents a book. The compromise offered was $15 a week and 7 cents a book.

Novel News Feature.

Pana, Ills., July 23.—The Assumption Independent, a weekly newspaper, announces that it will begin the publication of the Holy Bible this week, commencing with Genesis and continuing until the whole is published. It will require fifty years to complete the publication.

MINERS MARCHING

Disturbances Reported At West Virginia Collieries.

Charleston, W. Va., July 23.—The arrests of strikers Monday at the Collins colliery appears to have infuriated the miners there and marching commenced yesterday, large bodies of men moving about the property, shouting epithets at the men who are working. The colliery got out 700 tons of coal yesterday, but the men who are working are practically prisoners in the mine, as they do not come outside. Chief Deputy Hughes and Deputy Cunningham of the federal marshal's office made, eighteen arrests, thirteen being brought here and five taken to Hinton. The situation is serious in the Hinton section. Marshal Thompson will determine after a consultation with deputies whether he will go there. The trial of the arrested men will occur here Friday.

At Monarch colliery of the Kanawha and Hocking companies, 498 tons were taken out yesterday. The marching there has stopped after it continued last week.

Miners' Relief Fund.

Shamokin, Pa., July 23.—The ninth United Mine Workers' headquarters reports that funds for the strikers will be issued from this place. The worthiness of each applicant will be personally investigated. The money from national headquarters is expected to arrive within two weeks. An average of $4 per week will be given each deserving striker, although the amount will vary according to the size of the applicant's family and whether they are in sickness or in health.

Anna Shaw answered it by saying: "Persons who care for them when the mothers go to the opera."

Incidents and Accidents and Doings of Note Throughout Hoosierdom.

MAY HAVE BEEN MURDER

Sensational Developments in Case of Young Woman Reported to Have Killed Herself.

It Now Appears That She Was Fearful of Some Enemy and Predicted Her Murder.

Evansville, Ind., July 23.—The reported suicide in this city of Mrs. Beatrice Ashe, of Lewisport, Ky., may prove to be a murder. Mrs. Ashe was at the home of Mrs. Goodman on Main street. She left the room and returning in a few moments had a bullet wound in her heart and died instantly. Coroner Walker has begun an investigation. No powder burns were found on the clothing of Mrs. Ashe, and this leads the officials to believe that the woman might have been murdered.

Miss Goldie Goodman said Mrs. Ashe told her that she feared some one was going to kill her and she was very despondent. Miss Goodman said Mrs. Ashe told her there was a certain man in Kentucky she feared. Mrs. Ashe was 23 years of age, and left at Lewisport a husband with whom she had not lived for several months.

FATAL EXPLOSION

When Locomotive Boiler Let Go Engine Men Were Killed.

Washington, Ind., July 23.—The engine of local freight No. 34 on the B. & O. S. W., running fifteen miles an hour, blew up about three miles east of Olney, Ills., yesterday afternoon, killing the engineer, John Connolly, and fatally injuring the fireman, Michael Muster. Both men live in this city and have families. The men were taken from underneath the engine. Connolly lived a few minutes, but was unable to give any account of how the accident occurred. Fifteen freight cars were piled up in a mass.

Didn't Delay Traffic.

Anderson, Ind., July 23.—A massive steel bridge for the Big Four railway over White river north of the city has been slipped into position for use and trains are not delayed by the work. The steel superstructure was built on false supports alongside the old timber bridge. At midnight the old bridge was cut away, engines, cables and derricks attached to the new bridge began their work, and the wide span of steel was shifted about twenty feet and took the position of the old bridge. The work has been going on for several months, but will be completed within two or three weeks.

Woman Leaped From Train.

Decatur, Ind., July 23.—Mrs. Lon Holmes of Gas City, Ind., formerly of this place, was killed here yesterday by attempting to jump from a fast morning Toledo, St. Louis and Western excursion train. Mrs. Holmes thought the train was not going to stop here, and when it passed the station she jumped. She was thrown backward, her head striking a railroad tie with terrible force, crushing the skull. The unconscious woman was taken to the home of a neighbor, where she died after an hour of terrible suffering.

MRS. H. F. ROBERTS

Says to All Sick Women: "Give Mrs. Pinkham a Chance, I Know She Can Help You as She Did Me."

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM: The world praises great reformers; their names and fame are in the ears of everybody, and the public press helps spread the good tidings. Among them all Lydia E. Pinkham's name goes to posterity."

with a softly breathed blessing from the lips of thousands upon thousands of women who have been restored to their families when life hung by a thread, and by thousands of others whose weary, aching limbs you have quickened and whose pains you have taken away.

Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and for years I have known dozens of women who have suffered with displacement, ovarian troubles, ulcerations and inflammation who are strong and well to-day, simply through the use of your Compound."—MRS. H. F. ROBERTS, 1404 McGee St., Kansas City, Mo.—$5000 forfeit if above testimonial is not genuine.

How She Found Him.

Cincinnati, July 23.—The papers here Monday published the report of the killing of Charles Hacking at Memphis on Sunday. Yesterday Mrs. Hacking reported to the police that she had discovered the whereabouts of her husband, whom she married over twenty years ago and who deserted her and their children over six years ago. LET the people of Seymour not miss an opportunity to locate an industry that will benefit every business and property interest in the city. Such an industry can be brought here now if all will take hold and help along the enterprise.

THE republicans of Wisconsin will not do themselves justice if they fail to return Senator Spooner to the United States Senate. He is one of the very ablest and most useful men in that body. He is a great lawyer and a statesman of great ability.

It has been evident the past few days that extra advertising has brought people from all parts of the county to Seymour to trade. The merchants had special bargains to offer and told the people of them through the newspapers. A few dollars spent in advertising has been the means of selling hundreds of dollars worth of goods. It always pays to advertise.

On Saturday evening just at the close of the storm the peacefulness of our little village was disturbed by the ringing of bells and cry of fire. On investigation it was found that the Christian church had been struck by lightning. The bolt entered the vestibule at the south-east corner near the bell, tearing out the corner and warping off the weatherboarding but owing to the rain the fire gained very little head way. The loss is estimated at about three hundred dollars which is covered by insurance.

ROBERTSON—Almira F. Sanders was born April 16, 1857, was married September 26, 1878 to James D. Robertson. To this union have been nine children five boys and four girls, two of whom, one boy and one girl had gone before.

The funeral was held at the M. E. church Monday July 21, 1902 by Elder G. M. The Wrong of Intolerance.

The intolerant state of mind is injurious both to the state and to the individual. It goes with conceit and deadly pride. The strange thing is that men are apt to plume themselves upon their intolerance. It is evident that a man's conduct and a nation's conduct should be the result of thought and judgment, but intolerance stops thought and destroys judgment.—Century.

With a Purpose.

"Wasn't there an ungrammatical sentence in one of your speeches?"

"There was," answered Representative Husker. "I put it there on purpose. You see, we're plain folks up to Punks Corners, and I don't want my constituents to think I'm getting proud just because I've come to congress."—Washington Star.

To the Point.

An incident which occurred while Admiral Dewey was commanding the Asiatic squadron and one which illustrates his independence is one known as "the coal incident."

It seems that his squadron was in need of coal, but instead of writing to the chief of the bureau of equipment at the navy department he purchased a large amount of coal without consulting the department.

The following is the correspondence between the admiral and Captain Bradford, the chief of the bureau of equipment, and is self explanatory:

Navy Department, Washington.

To Dewey, Manila:

Why did you buy so much coal?

BRADFORD.

Flagship Olympia, Manila.

To Bradford, Chief Bureau Equipment, Washington:

To burn.

HENDERSON'S SCALP!

Iowa Millers Say That Is What They Are After.

Minneapolis, July 23.—H. S. Kennedy, secretary of the National Federation of Millers last night announced that the milling interests of the country are in league to procure the defeat of Speaker Henderson in his race for re-election to congress. The announcement was made prior to Kennedy's departure for Des Moines, Ia.

DAVID B. HENDERSON.

to attend a meeting at which means and means to encompass Henderson's political downfall will be discussed.

The resentment of the millers owes its genesis to Speaker Henderson's action in holding up the London dock clause, an amendment to the Harter bill designed to do away with what American exporters regard as unjust discrimination against United States flour in the unloading charges at London. According to Mr. Kennedy, Representative Orren Fletcher had practically secured assurances of the passage of the amendment, and the millers of the country felt certain their wishes would be carried out when Speaker Henderson suddenly interposed his interference and held up the measure.

Mr. Kennedy explains that no funds will be solicited outside of Iowa to prosecute the campaign against the speaker, but he intimates that all the money and means necessary are available in that state.

BETWEEN TWO FIRES.

How Oklahoma's Governor Solved a Ticklish Situation.

Guthrie, O. T., July 23.—Governor Ferguson was forced last night to withhold his decision on a request for the commutation of sentence of death imposed on Cephus Bruner, a half-blood Seminole Indian-negro boy aged fourteen, convicted of murdering a white boy, Martin West, near Violet Springs, Okla., on Dec. 24 last. Yesterday the governor was notified that after the sentence was commuted there was great danger of a mob taking Bruner from the Tecumseh jail and lynching him, and if not commuted that a party of Bruner's friends are ready to cross the Seminole line into Oklahoma and liberate him. The governor sent a sealed verdict to the Pottawatomie county sheriff and Bruner will be removed before either party can reach him. The general opinion is that the sentence has been commuted. After the murder of West a mob, failing to find young Bruner, lynched his younger brother in the Seminole nation.

STORY OF THE EXPLOSION

That Caused the Death of Engineer Connaty and Fireman Muster.

The following abridged account of the explosion and wreck near Olney, Ill., is taken from the Vincennes Commercial:

"The cause of the accident is not known. The engineer, who was taken out from under the wreck alive and who lived about forty-five minutes, being conscious to the end, said there was plenty of water in the boiler at the time and he knew of no reason for the explosion.

From all reports the accident was a most dreadful one. The conductor who was in the look-out of the caboose, says the train was driving along at a speed of about fifteen miles an hour, when, without a moment's warning, the boiler of the locomotive exploded, sending the monster steel steed fully thirty feet in the air. In its descent the engine turned completely over, end for end, and fell on its back a mass of wreckage, the pilot headed in directly the opposite direction from what it had been. While the engine was in the air the cars of the train shot underneath it a distance of about a hundred feet.

The force of the explosion was something awful. Only a small part of the engine remained intact. The front driving wheels were blown about fifty yards off on either side of the track.
The air brake cylinder was found over 150 yards distance and half of the engine frame and one wheel had not been found four hours after the accident occurred.

There was no escape possible for the unfortunate engineer and fireman who were blown up with the engine, the fireman being picked up fatally injured fully 100 yards from the engine, while the engineer was found a considerable distance from the engine, with a part of the engine pinioning him to the ground. The engineer lived forty-five minutes and was conscious to the end. Fireman Muster died at 4 p. m.

The train was made up of twenty-six cars, fourteen of which were totally demolished. The wrecked cars were loaded with merchandise of every description.

As a result of the wreck the track was blocked until about 8 o'clock in the evening and all passenger trains were late.

The fast train from the west, No. 2, went around by way of the Air Line from Olney to Princeton, thence to this city by way of the E. & C. T. H.
No. 1, the west bound train, took the same route out of this point.

The engine that blew up was No.
125 and for some time had been looked upon by railroad men as a hoodoo.
A number of years ago the engine was so badly wrecked by an explosion that it had to be practically rebuilt.

It is the same engine from which Fireman Charles Mitchell fell at the gravel pit west of this city about a year ago. The engine had just been overhauled at the shops.

Engineer John Connaty, whose death occurred forty-five minutes after the accident occurred, resided at Washington. He was a member of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers and one of the most reliable engineers on the road.

Fireman Mike Muster, resided at Washington where he leaves a wife and two children. He was a member of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and was very popular.

The remains of Engineer Connaty and Fireman Muster were taken to Washington on No. 12 Wednesday morning for interment.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease, and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven catarrh to be a constitutional disease, and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J.
Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market.
It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials. Address,

Then he was advised to try Electric Bitters, the wonderful Stomach and Liver remedy, and he writes: "After taking two bottles I was wholly cured."
